Better Look Twice... to see beyond the obvious

There are so many directions that life may lead us, but depending on which one we choose there are many events that could happen to any one of us. If we don't slow down to take a look around us, we may miss so many of the joys that life has to offer us.

In Memory of Cara Moran

Forever in our hearts

"You want to give people something to remember Cara by? Let them miss a sympathetic heart and a sharp tongue, because if you had known her, you could imagine her quirks and idiosyncrasies from those two things alone. All I can think about is that I hope heaven has a DJ set up that plays nothing but Justin Timberlake, 24-7, because she'd be right there, front row, singing as loudly as she could, if only to drown everyone else out." Tiffany Tangen

The college experience is more than just doing the things that we have to do, but about participating in the things that we want to do. When all is said and done, those are the things that we are going to remember and cherish the most. So open your eyes and look around at all the excitement that the campus has to offer.

Serve Day Experience

"Serve day for me was a chance for me to put aside myself for once and focus on serving others. I realized the joy it brought me to bring joy to others."

Johanna Schweitzer

Every year, George Fox University sets aside one day of the school year to show the love of Christ to the surrounding community. Serve Day is taken place the Wednesday after Labor Day when classes are canceled and students and faculty come together to help out the community to really be the hands and feet of Christ. Cleaning, painting, building projects, yard work, setting up, and helping out families are just a few of the many jobs that gets accomplished. With breakfast on the quad, morning worship, President Robin Baker carrying on the tie-dye tradition, and the many hands that help improve this world, this day is just a sliver of what Christ's love has to offer.

Below: Amongst the many jobs, painting is a common task that needs to be completed.

Q Jingle Bell Hop?

A "It was so awesome that it made us want to drink chai's all night long!"
Andrea Murphy & Leigh Rothweiler

Amongst the stress of school, students need to find a way to let loose and what better way than to dance! ASC puts on a number of dances that include the annual Ho-Down, 70's Dance, Sadie Hawkins Salsa Dance and the light hearted swing dancing at the Jingle Bell Hop. From afros to fancy do's, from bell bottoms to twirling cocktail dresses, Fox students definitely knows how to shake it up and have a good time!

The middle of the semester is about that time of the year when students get overwhelmed with school and they just need a weekend to relax and get away from the craziness of campus. That is where the Fall and Spring all campus retreats come into play as students are welcomed to take a weekend off and head to Camp Tadmor and Twin

Campus Ministries

Campus Ministry works to bring people closer to God through service and fun. The Women's Ministry and Manistry devote their energies to encouraging students in their faith and providing a supportive group for the needs of students. James Project and Urban Services focus on off campus needs, reaching out to the community through service.

Urban Services was more than a service to the community, but it was also an outreach. Here, Meghan Hedley speaks with one of the men she helped.

Davy Desmond and Meghan Hedley take a break from serving to spend a few moments ministering to these men.

Rachel Knowler and Davy Desmond loved participating in Urban Services which went out and helped those in need in the Portland and Salem communities.

The God Page...

More than just chapel

Spiritual formation - the glue of all campus activities. The goal is to promote spiritual growth through service to others and daily meditations in Bible Studies and Chapel. This year Campus Ministries focused on helping students enjoy Christ in the present. Recognizing the various forms of worship students find fellowship through floor studies, lectures, Spanish chapels, serve trips, or staying for talk backs after plays. These activities provide intellectual stimulation and relational growth.

Left: Students worship at one of the chapels offered every Monday and Wednesday. There were many opportunities beyond chapel to grow in spirit.

MEMORIES

"Serve trips are all about stepping out of your comfort zone, meeting new people, and praising God with a servant's heart."

Julie Herr

The annual Winter Serve gave students the opportunity to give back to the community. Working hand in hand with Union Gospel Mission in Portland and Tigard as well as My Father's House in Gresham, the Portland serve trip sorted and delivered food and clothing to the homeless and distributed them at different mission centers. The team that went to Twin Rocks Friends Camp cleaned, remodeled and did groundwork to improve the campsite. The March Spring Serve Trips spread the love from Idaho, Washington, Utah to California. They either learned about the Nez Perce culture, had a positive influence on troubled boys, learned about the Mormon culture, or worked with many outreach programs. On both trips participants developed friendships, strengthened their relationship with God, were challenged, and encouraged in their faith.

Q Funniest Moment?

A Kelsey Schmidt was sitting on a flip up seat on the Metro in Paris when she stood up thinking we were getting off. It ended up being the wrong exit so she sat back down forgetting that the seats automatically flip up and fell butt first to the ground. The old french men giggling made it that much funnier.

Juniors Abroad is a chance for students to learn about new cultures first hand. After a year of studying hard this year's group of students left for far off places excited to see the world, prolong summer responsibilities, and hang out with friends. The trips took students to Taiwan, Greece, Italy, France, South Africa, Australia, Egypt, Norway, Sweden, Spain, and England with more stops in between. Students got to shop in Paris, Scuba dive in the Great Barrier Reef, and Raft the Nile. A heavy dose of culture, a good sized dollop of fun and a dash of learning is the recipe for Juniors Abroad.

People

Divider

The students, faculty, and staff at George Fox are the central component that embodies our University. No matter if it's late night hangouts with friends, study groups with classmates, or roomies with a date you've just met, the people you choose to hang out with have a huge impact on your experience at Fox—so choose wisely!

Hanging out and chilling is a favorite “activity” among the students of GFU.

The people we call as friends have a huge impact...including the ability to make us laugh.

Close friends can come from anywhere—classes, housing areas, or groups—and all are a blessing.

“You never know who might step into your life and become a special friend. I always try to be open to new friendships.”

With eight Women's and seven Men's team sports, there were numerous opportunities for students to become involved in athletics. In addition to being on a sports team, many students chose to enjoy and support the teams at home and away events alike. The opportunity for the GFU community to be involved in athletics; either as an athlete, a spectator, or a coach; was a wonderful opportunity to have fun, work hard, and "be lights unto the world."

Fans are a huge part of the success of GFU sports. Here, the Bruin Mascot helps liven up the crowd.

Team Camaraderie and encouragement were key components of each teams success. Elise Kuenzi and B.B. Gardner share a moment of excitement with one another.

Working together, the Men's cross country team demonstrates how as a team, a group of individuals can accomplish much more than on their own.

"Being a part of sports at George Fox is about more than just participating in athletics; its about growing, learning, and sharing in some great things with incredible people who are like family to me." Mary VanSteenberghe

The Dance and Cheer teams, let by captain Jeni Takekawa perform one of their routines during half time.

The George Fox Dance and Cheer Teams swelled in numbers as they began their 3rd consecutive year as a part of Fox talent. With ten members each, the teams were able to perform more advanced choreography. At home games the crowd never had a dull moment with the dance team dazzling the

WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER?

It was fun getting involved with the school and being able to support them with a hobby I love. Woo!

● Karley Molzahn

I learned a lot about how to balance being a captain, friend, and coach, but my girls made it easy on me. Each girl is awesome and basically are volunteering their time to do something that they love.

● Jeni Takekawa

The cheer/dance team's routines were a highlight at basketball games, I loved watching their moves. These girls definitely proved themselves as a "real sport."

Volleyball

The Lady Bruins began the season with a bang, winning their first four games. After that, they endured a rocky season intermittent wins ending with an overall record of 10-13. This year the Lady Bruins are graduating four seniors: Amy Batchelder, Whitney Kolb, Cassandra Woods, and All-Northwest Conference Second Team Elizabeth Anderson. The Lady Bruins now look forward to a strong season next year with a new group rising to the challenge of the competition.

Power and Drive

Women's Soccer

Jenny McKinsey gets ready to chip the ball across the field in hopes to assist a goal.

The women's soccer team possessed great talent and once they learned how to work with and for each other their hard work allowed them to succeed. Regarding their conditioning, Molly Schaefer felt that they "were a second half team and it showed because we were still running at the end of the game." With great team chemistry, ball control, and conditioning the women had an outstanding season. They placed third in the league and seven individuals were recognized on the 2007 All-Northwest Conference Women's Soccer Teams. Four women were second team NWC and three received honorable mention, among those were seniors Amber Stevens and Jessica Cardwell.

Memorable Moments

"Our last weekend of home games, where we tied #4 UPS, and then beat Linfield in overtime for an amazing end to the season, after which the seniors were drenched in water from the Gatorade cooler."

Perserverence

Men's Soccer

The 2007 men's soccer team was a group of diligent, hardworking young men who strove to play to the best of their abilities throughout the duration of their season. The season can best be summed up in the words of team member Sean Daughtery. "Every person on that team had a rough season. We have to look beyond our results to find good in it, and I think that comes in the bonds that we made."

Far Above: Carlos Pehr focuses on aiming just right in order to send the ball as far as he can down the field.

Bethany Adams, a senior who competed all four years on the team, surges ahead, determination seen in her every move. Nothing will get past her in the last push to the finish.

Memories

Anna laughs as she recalls her coach saying, "Anybody can do one; my Grandma could rise from the dead and run one of these faster than you!"

Anna McLain

The Women's Cross Country team defined the season with heart and friendship. A small team, they never gave up even when facing difficult odds. The team showed their talent at the Bronco invite in California earning a second place finish. The NWC championships proved a rough patch, yet the team rallied and continued to persevere through their training. At regionals they fought their way to an 11th place finish with senior Rachel Giffey-Brohaugh leading the way with a third place finish. Although the team loses three valuable seniors, Rachel Giffey-Brohaugh, Anna McLain, and Bethany Adams the young supporting teammates will keep next years team running strong thus keeping the distance flame alive.

-Adam Haldorson

Q How does one place higher?
A "If you don't like your time, just run faster."
-Cam Eberhart

Faced with small numbers, the men's cross country team made up for it with increased determination and work ethic. The team worked to improve their times and along the way grew improved their friendships. The men finished the season placing 5th at conference, and 9th at regionals. Team scoring requires seven members, and the men competed with a perfect number. The leadership of senior Grant Finney helped this young team step up to the plate and compete strong.

The Lady Bruins began the season with high expectations and a fiery drive toward nationals. Their opening game reflected this determination, crushing the opponent 111-13. Undefeated at home, the Bruins claimed the NWC championship and charged to the Sweet 16 in the national tournament.

Playing for the Glory

Women's Basketball

With six seniors providing leadership and a whole lot of game the Lady Bruins finished the season 25-5, a record which reflects not only their skill on the court but their dedication to the team and passion for the game. Their National goals were Sweet but fell just short of great. This season though will be remembered for its fierce play and incredible heart.

Look at that Shot!

Men's Basketball

The Bruin men worked hard throughout the 2007-2008 season to improve their basketball skills and to grow closer as a team. With senior Brady Strutz side-lined by an ACL injury, the team had to work extra hard to achieve success. Led by a strong class of seniors, the men worked through every obstacle that came their way. With an overall winning record, the team wrapped up their season on a high note with wins at the Homecoming game and against Whitman for their final game of the season. Way to go guys!

Left: Mark Metzler finishes up his shot while he scores a basket against Pacific University at the Homecoming game.

Travis Toedtemeier throws up a shot from behind the 3-point line as his opponent unsuccessfully tries to stop him.

Memories

"Although it was a tough season, it was one of the greatest learning moments of my life. I feel that through the ups and downs, the team really came together this year. The senior class...Noble, Metz, Tay, Brady, and Brent led the way and showed us how to play together as a team."

Swinging to the Green

Men's & Women's Golf

On a beautiful day, Dan Grierson takes a swing to start the competition on a good start.

In their first year ever the Men's Bruin Golf team made their mark in the Conference. Lead by David Burkhart, the Bruin's placed fourth in their opening tournament. They went on to place seventh in the NWC, solidifying their place as contenders. The Bruin's will lose key players next year in seniors Daniel Grierson, Matt Simpson, and Ben Ulrich. The first time team competed in 11 tournaments over the winter months and began what is sure to be a proud tradition at George Fox University athletics.

In their second year as an athletic program, The Bruin Women's golf team enjoyed great success. They won three tournaments as a team and placed third in the NWC fall tournament and fourth in the spring. Freshman, Brittany Zefkeles received honorable mention in the NWC for her remarkable performance at the GFU Women's Spring Invitational. All members of the team were named Bruin Athletic Association Women's Athletes of the Week for their victory at the same tournament. With so much success after only two years, the University can anticipate great accomplishments from this team in the future.

Memories

We definitely shocked the conference this year with our showing a Fall Conference. It was so exciting for our team to emerge as a strong contender. It not only became a strong motivator for us as individuals, but it also was a big step for the program.

Christine Collier

Women's Team: Coach MaryJo Mcloskey, Whitney Clunes, Nicole Hudson, Christine Collier, Brianna Nap, Mandy Cameron, Brittany Zefkeles.

Lindsay Hagler steps it up as she prepares to defeat her opponent in another round of play.

MOST ENJOYABLE?

QUESTION & ANSWER

“Definitely my teammates; they became my second family and it was awesome going to Disneyland with them.”

● Lauren Miller

“The friendships that I’ve made with the team. I feel like after our Spring Break trip we are a family now. I love them so much!”

● Heather Orr

“The team chemistry was incredible this year. My teammates are very caring and supportive and can keep me laughing for hours. I love ‘em!”

● Shanna Lesire

Anyone in need for a jump? A few of the women tennis players get a nice refreshing start as they start a new day.

Hitting it Off Right...

Women's Tennis

Although they didn't have high rankings, these women definitely knew what it meant to truly bond as a team as they made their way down to California for Spring Break. Sweeping Cal Tech and Pacific were just a few highlights; they definitely improved as the season progressed. Not winning many matches, they played teams better and more competitively the second time through.

Memories

"My tennis experience at George Fox was great. I met good friends and shared many memories with them. Playing tennis enhanced my college experience and I'm certainly thankful I chose to play."

Mac Ovenell

Lead by seniors Mac Ovenell, Shawn McKenzie, and Jordan Vargas the men's tennis team worked with their small numbers to improve their standing in the NWC. With determination and some wicked serves the team managed to come together and have fun. Though the weather often hampered practice time the men diligently worked to improve their skills. The team also stepped up their training this season with some outside sport consultation. Good job this season.

Right: Amber Philliber quickly moves from catching the ball to tagging out her opponent.

Rounding the bases and coming in to home, Ashley Peterson begins to position herself to slide in for the run.

Q How was the team chemistry?

A The coaches changed my life for the better and because of the softball team and season I feel I am a better person as a whole.

Haley Harnish-Stadden

A We had a lot of new additions to the team this past year, It was good to see that much experience and fearless attitude from the freshman and transfers.

Kristen Griffith

Q Favorite Memory?

A When we were waiting for the rain to clear at Linfield and most of the girls were in the van eating and we passed around our coaches dorky glasses and all made different impressions of his facials.

Amber Philliber

Small numbers and youthful ambition are just two ways of looking at this years Softball team. With only two seniors Kerstyn Tsuruda and Amber Philliber and no juniors the young squad gained a solid foundation of experience from which to build a strong program. Head coach Mark Vergets will pass the opportunity to cultivate this team on to another as he retires after 4 years in the position. The team finished with an overall record of 3-27-1. Late season injuries prevented the team from finishing the season. Though disheartened by the turn of events the Bruin's keep their spirit alive and look to next year with hope.

Above: Serena Lee keeps her eye on the ball as she quickly grabs it up with her glove and follows it by throwing it back to the infield.

Coach Mark Vergets, Erin Case.

Head Coach Marty Hunter gives Michael Woo some encouraging words after a good run that led him to the base safely.

Under the new leadership of Marty Hunter the Bruins continued their legacy of excellence with a winning record of 28-14. They placed second in conference and were named second in the West Region for the first round of Nationals. The team struggled valiantly throughout the season, never giving into impossible odds. The baseball team fought hard in Texas and were eliminated, yet finished strong with their 13th straight winning season.

Continuing Strength

Men's Baseball

Coaches: Marty Hunter, Randy Rutschman, J.R. Reichenbach, Brandon Rupp, Kevin Kipple, Cheyenne Scrivner, Tye Tinner.

Ryan Fobert received Second Team All-NWC honors as catcher.

HOW DO YOU REMEMBER IT?

MEMORIES

The most memorable moment this season was going into the Linfield series as the underdog. We may have lost conference but we won the respect of Linfield and the fans that thought we had no chance. Winning three games out of 4 showed a lot about us as a team. We never gave up and played our hearts out.

● Derek Aldrich

Despite dealing with a lot of adversity this season (injuries, losses, etc.) I feel we not only competed every game, but we also became very close as a team. It's not everyday you find a great group of guys like this who can have a great time, but also get business done.

● Brian Davis

Women's Track

Running to the finish!

This season proved to be an extremely successful one. In addition to taking 2nd place at Conference and sending 7 members to Nationals, the team also experienced success in their day to day interactions with one another. Each member of the team helped to create a winning atmosphere by learning to work hard, have fun, and encourage one another together. This combination proved to not only be successful, but also to be perfect for team unity and enjoyment by all.

Anna McLain and Bethany Adams round the final corner of their 1500 meter race and focus on the finish as their teammates and coaches watch and cheer them to the end.

Team: Irene Johnson, Hannah Printz, Melissa Leighty, Terah Laack, Greta Erickson, Bethany Adams, Marlee Zakrevsky, Sierra Whitehill, Naomi Harder, Sofie DeGraff, Kelly Bladorn, Lizzy Alaimo, Elisha Kampfe, Rachel Giffey-Brohaugh, Whitney Kolb, Jessica Morisson, Mollie Honan, Reneca Bauer, Connie Steiner, Katie Servoss, Anna McLain, Anja Harder, Julie Brown, Mary VanSteenberghe, Molly Schaefer, Katie Alaimo, Emily Hodgkin, Cindy Walsh, Jessica Brassard, Sarah Curry, Lisa Mensonides.

Coach Doug Beatty gets into the One-Mile race, along with David Delmore and Sam McKenzie at the George Fox-Westmont Retro Duel meet in Santa Barbara California during Spring Break. Westmont will be remodelling their track from old school cinder surface to the traditional rubber surface, and they invited Fox to compete duel style in one last meet on the old track. The meet was eventful and memorable for all involved.

Making Strides

Track U!

Jake Weber propels himself off the board as he leaps into the pit for long jump.

The 2008 track season proved to be very successful for the bruin men. Led by a number of national contenders and conference champions, the men made use of every member on the team in order to score as many points and place as high as possible at each meet. The team came together everyday at practice to improve their abilities. After placing in the top half at conference, the team continued to train and qualified 3 men for the national championships held in Oshkosh Wisconsin. Seniors Ben Dillow and Joel Krebs, along with Junior Ryan Forbes, represented the team at nationals . The hard work and perseverance displayed by the bruin men clearly paid off throughout the season.

Team: Grant Finney, John Zaganiacz, David Marvin, Clayton Fugsley, Ryan Forbes, Brian Terletzky, Bret Hamilton, Josh Smith, Tyler Hoskins, David Delmore, Adam Haldorson, Paul Rapet, Ben Burgess, Dakarai Kongela, David Dillow, Ben Dillow, Nate Dillow, Chris Fritz, Jake Weber, Garrett Blizzard.

David Marvin counts down his steps as he prepares to launch the javelin at the George Fox-Westmont Retro Duel Meet.

Memories

"You know that it is track season, when we are walking through the airport on our way to California and everyone is pondering how much faster they would be able to run their race if it was on one of those flat walking escalators."

Ending of an Era

So much can happen in four years. For most seniors the last four years was spent not just growing through academics but also growing as a person through the friendships and memories that were made and will always be cherished. Looking back there is no mistaking that or experiences at Fox have shaped our lives in so many ways. So take a look and see the highlights of the last four years through our eyes.

I will never forget the community and support I experienced on the GFU campus and on Hob 2 in Nov. of 2004 when we found out about the tragedy surrounding Karissa Edward's passing... The other girls living on Hob 2, many members of the GFU community and even Karissa's family showed so much love and compassion during a time of pain and mourning. The heart and character I saw during that difficult time is what really caused me to fall in love with this place.

MOMENTS

My favorite college memory was when we roasted marshmallows over candles on a dock freshman year.

● Elysa Aho

My favorite thing about Fox is fall semesters when the weather is beautiful, and the quad is full of people hanging out and relaxing!

● Kristi Dewar

Hold on to the apparatus!

● Karen Vogan

I think that my most memorable moment at fox was when me and 5 buddies took an epic road trip to Disney land. Totally leaving on a Wednesday and coming back for classes on Monday. We just decided that we would go for it and we knew it would be one of the greatest things we have ever done. It totally was. 32 hours of driving in four days! It was epically awesome.

● Jon Maroni

LOOKING BACK

My favorite Fox memories were when Abe decided to ask Britney Spears to the Spring Formal, Chris Nicholson wondered if tree man bled maple syrup, and my favorite mystery box, Austin was in my bedroom in a dangerously short bathrobe.

● Sydney Deal

I remember in math class we watched a hilarious video on a pi vs. e debate. Somehow in there I learned how to speak Venus-ian. (language of the Venus aliens)

My favorite memories have definitely been from the spring serve trips to Lapwai, Idaho I’ve been on. From rolling down a hill covered in dead wheat with Lapwai locals, to making sheep masks with the kids at VBS, to grilling 80 frozen hamburger patties with a former vegan, Lapwai serve trips have been the BEST!

"Corem Deo" - it means "before the face of God" in Latin, and it is the name of our prayer group. The 12 of us have met together since freshman year. We pray for each other, our campus, our community and our world. One of my favorite memories was turning the quad into a giant mudslick the first rainstorm of the semester. Everyone would run amok in the mud, sliding like penguins across the grass, spraying mud and water all over the place. Complete strangers would join in, abandoning backpacks and cleanliness, all in the name of mud.

I remember the time freshman year when the library staff and work-study students covered the library director's office and all contents thereof in tin foil while he was out of town. Literally everything—from walls, floor, and furniture to pencils, leaves of plants, and paper clips—was “foiled”.

Brittany Harmon-Watilo

"I'll always remember the time when some guys on my freshman floor, Penn 2, went down the back stairwell to Penn 1 completely naked, and then the rest of us held the door from the stairwell shut to make sure they couldn't come back onto the floor. For those of us holding the door shut, there was some good bonding going on. For the naked men trying to get back in, it was probably pretty cold."

Dan Bennett

"I will always remember the time when those of us living on Sutton 1 got caught putting a 300 lb pumpkin in the U-hall (Coffin) elevator. I will also never forget the beauty and brilliance of Party Truck, may it live on forever."

I'm a rather small person. My freshman year a few of my friends tackled me and hog tied me in the hall of Hobson 3 and took pictures of it. Good times...for them!

● Brittany Robbins

I guess memorable for me is being NWC women's basketball conference champions three out of the four years our group of seniors has been here. There are six of us who have been on that team since 2004 and all the support the school has shown us every year has been more than amazing.

● Mandee Spotts

I'll never forget when Prof Mark Wienert got mad at an empty white-board marker and threw it from the front of the Lemons 8 room across to the garbage can at the back of the room (about 30 feet) and made it!!! Everyone in the classroom was amazed and laughed...it was hilariously awesome!

● George Cortes

Some of my best memories involve pranks I played as a freshman, like when a bunch of us connived to steal the Schaefer-Phillips ASC election mascot in the atrium outside the exit to the Bon. It was a large inflatable stork, and a bunch of us guys from U-Hall crept up onto the roof late one night and lowered several of our members into the atrium in an attempt to snag it. Just then, Ed Gierok from Security came out onto the roof and busted all of us-well, almost all of us. I was wearing a mask, so I took off running and jumped off the roof, landing at a dead run between the library and the Bon. We did eventually spirit away the stork, by the way.

● Ben Anderson

One of my favorite memories from Fox was during my sophomore year. About a dozen of the students from the theatre department all drove up to Washington to compete and/or participate in workshops at the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival, and we spent one evening at a student dance party, dancing and singing at the top of our lungs to AC/DC and the like. It was amazing and was the birthplace of many, many long-standing inside jokes.

A memorable and exciting moment that comes to mind for me is freshmen year when some students from my floor and a bunch of other students all went Ice Blocking. This is when you take big blocks of ice, sit on them, and slide down hills. Most of us were able to try it out once and it was tons of fun, but then the cops came and told us we had to leave the park because your not suppose to be there after dark. I guess it was pretty dangerous to be there after dark, but oh well it was tons of fun! I also thought it was pretty funny that a ton of GF students got busted by the cops!

Amber Morgan

I'll never forget Audrey Hepburn pancakes, pumpernickel bread, laughing, crying, David aprons, shoes, Christmas parties and earrings, Desperate Housewives marathons and living life with my darling roommates: Ash Woo, Ash Marcu and Daves.

Kelsey Thomas

One of our best memories was working on Paint Crew during the summer at Fox, speeding through the canyon on gators, eating Popsicles and taking way too long breaks, Haley having a seizure, monkey paw, making incredible friends, and basically having the best summer of our lives.

Susan Suihkonen & Janna McKee

During Spring Break 2006, I was part of the team that went down to New Orleans to help gut out houses from Hurricane Katrina. At the end of a workday, a car full of girls drove right next to a group of us guys and honked the horn and blasted the radio. I suddenly felt an urge and ran and jumped on the hood of their car and took my shirt off and swung it over my head and put on a little show for them. To this day, I am now known by the name Strip Teej!

Taylor Martin

Some of my best memories at Fox are sophomore year when President Brandt faked a broken leg out on the quad for a bruin brawl flash...Being the RA of the "not-so-infamous" floor Ed 1 Junior year.... Or on Juniors Abroad when I was asked/ dragged to sing at an old man's "American-style Karaoke" birthday party in Monterosso, Italy... Being Homecoming Queen senior year :-)...And all the, literally, countless, sleepless, caffeine-filled nights spent study various science courses with my favorite cohorts.

GRADUATION

HOW DO YOU REMEMBER IT

"It's crazy how fast four years has come and gone, but I wouldn't have changed a minute of it. Well, except maybe a few of the all nighters..."

● Kelly Bladorn

"You're still here? I thought you graduated last year?"

● Grant Finney

"Watching all of the seniors graduate was exciting and sad all at the same time. This was a great group of people and they will be greatly missed!"

Fox's Final Farewell

Day of Reckoning

The George Fox Class of 2008, like those before them, could hardly believe that the day had finally arrived to walk across the stage and receive their diplomas. Although each graduating student was about to head off in a different direction, the one thing they all shared was the fact that they had successfully completed college and were off to see the "real world!"

Clubs Section

Divider

There were many ways to get involved at George Fox, including a vast array of Clubs. Ranging from academic orientated to just-for-fun, there was something for every interest and personality. Not only were Clubs a good way to get to know other students, they were a good way to share talents, ideas, and gifts with others.

"I loved having an opportunity to get involved at Fox beyond the pressures of classes. It was a great way to make friends and do something fun that benefited the campus."

Lift your voices...

George Fox Choir

For the Concert Choir, it was about far more than just singing. It was about commitment, dedication, and relationships. The Choir only excelled when all members worked together encouraging and motivating the others to be the best.

Memories

"Choir has been incredible this year. Loren has directed us well and we have bonded with the awesome music we have been able to sing this year."

Libby Tate

Music abounds on the George Fox Campus, and nothing sings abundance like the vocal ensembles. The Concert Choir, Women's and Men's Chorale, Jazz Ensemble and the Chamber Singers all use their gifts of song to bless the community. The variety of choir groups allows vocally inclined students to find their own niche. The ensembles bring together music major and simply music lovers alike. This year the Concert Choir was honored with the selection to perform at the 2007 All State and All Northwest Conferences. Building off this success the vocal ensembles continue to exemplify excellence with their harmonies.

Sharing the Gift of Music

George Fox Bands

The student directed Recorder Ensemble combines forces with Andrew Magnuson as they perform in sync with one another.

Playing according to their sheet music, each member of the band put in countless extra hours to perform to the best of their ability.

Q How is band doing as a whole?

A “I think that the band is a very expressive group. I feel as though we are able to get the music learned pretty quickly and then work the majority of our time on how the songs feels and not the mechanics of it.”

Scott Bay

Q Did you like your instrument?

A “I liked playing my trombone because the trombone is an instrument that is unlike any other and it makes beautiful sounds.”

Ryan Zwygert

The Symphonic Band, Jazz Band, and Chehalem Symphony Orchestra allow students to express their musical talent. Both bands participate in numerous concerts, clinics, festivals and recitals. They diligently practice three days a week for about five hours. The Orchestra hosts two concerts a year, giving them time to perfect their symphony. Band president Emily Blanshan says “I enjoy music because it provides me with an amazing outlet to share my talent with others and express myself.”

Bottom Left: 'Whatever Kindles' was a brand new piece performed in a unique style many of us had never done before.

George Fox University's theater department showcased its talent throughout the year giving a variety of different performances. 'Whatever Kindles', 10-10-10! (One-Act Festival), Black Boy and As It Is In Heaven were the chosen productions for this season.

Lights, Camera...ACTION!

Standing in the spotlight

Ending her final year of theater, senior Tara Strever sums up this year's theater program stating, "I have enjoyed the creative nature of this year's programs; there was a lot of experimentation going on this year with student-produced works and newly-written plays, and it all came off brilliantly."

ENJOYED MOST?

QUESTION & ANSWER

“Being in theater, most of us have become a family since we’ve been around each other so much. Everyone is great!”

● Andrew Watson

“Theater creates a bond - family; adds elements to yourself you never thought you had and changes your perspective on life.”

● Alyssa Ott

“This year’s theater program has been unique and new in some fashion. The excitement of storytelling and experimentation is always a rush!”

● Jordan Beanblossom

Here for the Community ASC

ASC, better known as the Associated Student Committee, played a central role in most of the events and activities that took place at George Fox this past year. Whatever the situation, Bruin Brawls, new clubs, campus development, dances, ministries, volunteer positions, etc..., ASC manages to facilitate and channel it into a productive end for the student body. Lead by President Jordan Philips, this years ASC central committee got the job done.

ASC Central is responsible for turning the students bright ideas (hence the light bulb) into realities. The General Student Funds this year created chess sets all around campus for students, faculty and guests to enjoy.

The ASC central committee spends some time getting to know one another while having fun.

Reflections

"It was an incredible experience to be a part of Central Committee this year. We worked really hard to develop new things for students and to continue to improve what was already there."

And now for a final farewell...

The GFU track team during the annual "Spring Fling" trip to California.

I can't believe that four years has finally come to an end. This crazy little thing we call the "L'Ami" has been the controller of all my free time for the last three years, and it's finally time to say good bye. While in no way will I miss the stress of deadlines, I can say that I will miss the excitement of publishing something that reaches the entire student body, and that, I hope, brings some joy to all of you who look at it. I hope that we have captured your memories well, and you can use this little book to look back on and never forget the memories you have made at Fox. I know that I won't. While I know that most of you won't read this, I hope that those of you who do don't mind me using it for my own personal interests. I would like to thank those who have helped make this book possible and who have spent the countless hours working on it with me. Lisa, Mary, Adam, and Jana, you guys have been around for it all. I thank you so much for your hard work and patience! Mollie, Sarah, you are the new kids, and you guys are great. I appreciate you putting up with all the craziness this year and I am really thankful for the relationships I have had with all of you. Mary, you have been my rock, I can always count on you to be willing to help with anything I need, and I appreciate your heart and willingness so much! Lisa, Mollie, you guys are my original SH-Teammates and I don't know what I would have done without you! You have both been great friends and I cherish you in my life! Every single one of you has been an amazing blessing in my life and I am glad to have gotten to know each and every one of you. I pray and hope that God blesses each of you in your future endeavours.

Oh yeah...and TRACK U!
